AFFIDAVIT

I, Wendy Bowers, being duly sworn, do hereby depose and state the following:

1. I am a Special Agent with the United States Customs Service (Customs, and have been so employed for the past 12 years. My duties include the enforcement of federal narcotics laws. I make this affidavit on the basis of my personal knowledge of the investigation, as well as upon information relayed to me by agents of U. S. Government, and State and Local Law Enforcement Officers.

2. On December 2, 2000, I was responded to Port Everglades, Broward County, Florida in response to a request from Customs inspectors and ship's security of the cruise vessel "Century." The ship had just returned to Port Everglades following a seven day Caribbean cruise that included stops at foreign ports.

3. On December 2, 2000, ship's security personnel of the vessel Century conducted routine inspections of the ship's crew, following the ship's arrival at Port Everglades. As DELROY WAYNE HENRY was departing the ship, ship's security personnel conducted a routine pat-down of HENRY's person which revealed the presence of two packages taped HENRY's upper torso. The packages were secured with masking tape and appeared to be contraband.

4. Ship's security personnel contacted Customs after detecting the packages on HENRY's person. A field test by Customs Inspectors revealed the packages taken from Henry's Your affiant responded to the vessel Century at Port Everglades and advised HENRY of his miranda rights. HENRY waived his rights and agreed to answer questions.

5. HENRY stated that on December 1, 2000, he had been approached by a fellow crew member, ANDREW NATHANIEL WARBURTON, who asked HENRY if he would be willing to smuggle cocaine off the ship. On December 2, 2000. WARBURTON went to HENRY's cabin aboard the Century to determine if HENRY was ready to smuggle cocaine off of the ship. A crew member saw WARBURTON and HENRY speaking to one another outside HENRY's cabin. WARBURTON then went to his own cabin, followed a short time later by HENRY.

6. Upon his arrival at WARBURTON's cabin, HENRY observed WARBURTON holding a roll of masking tape. HENRY also observed two packages of cocaine on the floor of the cabin's bathroom. WARBURTON instructed HENRY to pull up his shirt. WARBURTON then attached the two packages of cocaine to HENRY's upper torso by wrapping the masking tape around HENRY's upper body. WARBURTON then instructed HENRY to return to his own cabin. HENRY was then supposed to meet WARBURTON off the ship near the gates where the transportation van pick up point.

7. Following the interview of HENRY, a search team, assisted by a Broward County Sheriff's office (BSO) narcotics detection dog, proceeded to WARBURTON's cabin aboard the Century. The dog alerted upon drawers in the cabin that contained only elastic bandages. Three rolls of masking tape, similar to the tape used to attach the packages to HENRY's body, was discovered in Warburton's cabin. The narcotics detection dog alerted upon two of the rolls of masking tape.

8. Based upon the foregoing, your affiant believes that there is probable cause to believe that DELROY WAYNE HENRY and ANDREW NATHANIEL Warburton conspired to possess cocaine with intent to distribute and to smuggle cocaine into the United States.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.
